LEADERSHIP CIRCLE – GROUP COACHING FOR CONNECTED LEADERS

Shared growth. Real accountability. Next-level leadership.

Why join a Leadership Circle?

Leadership is rarely a solo journey.

The TLC Leadership Circle provides a trusted space for leaders to learn, reflect, and grow together.

In this Circle, you will:

- Tap into the collective wisdom and diverse experience of trusted peers.
- Work on real-world leadership challenges in a safe, structured space.
- Stay accountable to your goals and progress in a supportive environment.

LEADERSHIP CIRCLE – GROUP COACHING FOR CONNECTED LEADERS

How it works

A group of 10-12 leaders from the same organisation or leadership network join the Circle for 10 group coaching sessions over a 10-month period.

Each session is facilitated by a TLC Leadership Group expert coach and leadership facilitator, ensuring depth, focus, and meaningful progress.

Sessions combine proven leadership frameworks, guided discussion, peer reflection, exploration of real-world challenges, and practical action planning.

Participants also gain full access to the TLC Leadership Library – a collection of expert videos, leadership frameworks, and action-oriented cheat sheets and roadmaps to reinforce learning between sessions.

The group commits to all scheduled sessions to maintain momentum, trust, and accountability.

Who this is for

- Larger leadership teams or peer groups who want to grow and learn together.
- Mid- to senior-level leaders ready to strengthen their leadership impact in a shared learning environment.
- Organisations seeking a cost-effective, high-impact alternative to private executive coaching for multiple leaders.

"I highly recommend Thilan Legierse as an outstanding leadership coach. I recruited Thilan to work with and develop our whole leadership team, and the impact has been exceptional. Thilan's coaching was professional, insightful and carefully tailored to both individual leaders and the collective needs of the team. She created a safe, challenging and highly purposeful space that strengthened leadership capability, confidence and alignment across the college. Each session was focused and practical, with clear actions that translated directly into our day-to-day leadership practice. Thilan is an exceptional coach who delivers meaningful and lasting impact at both an individual and organisational level."

Kerry

"Thilan has a wealth of experience, but more importantly she understands people and that everyone is different. This makes her a great facilitator, mentor and coach. I have interacted with Thilan in several settings and found her to always bring a positive calming touch to stressful situations and also encourage and empower individuals to become better leaders."
